

AN INSPECTOR CALLS QUOTES

1. The Engagement Party	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The lighting should be pink and intimate, until the Inspector arrives, and then it should be brighter and harder. 2. Except all last summer when you never came near me – Sheila 3. Crofts and Birlings are ...working together for lower costs and higher prices – Mr B
2. Mr Birling's Capitalist Speech	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I'm talking as a hard-headed practical man of business 2. unsinkable, absolutely unsinkable 3. You'd think that everybody has to look after everybody else, as if we were all mixed up together like bees in a hive 4. Some people say that war is inevitable. And to that I say – fiddlesticks! 5. A man has to mind his own business and look after himself and his own – and –
3. Mr Birling's interrogation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I can't accept any responsibility 2. It's my duty to keep labour costs down 3. She'd had a lot to say – far too much.– so she had to go 4. If you don't come down hard on these people, they'll soon be asking for the earth 5. 'But these girls aren't cheap labour – they're people' – Sheila 6. 'We're respectable citizens and not criminals' – Mr Birling
4. Sheila's interrogation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I told him if they didn't get rid of that girl, I'd never go near the place again and I'd persuade mother to close our account 2. If she'd been some miserable, plain little creature, I don't suppose I'd have done it 3. I'll never, never do it again to anybody... I feel I can never go there again. 4. If I could help her now, I would –
5. Gerald's interrogation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. All she wanted was to talk – a little friendliness 2. So I insisted on Daisy moving into those rooms and I made her take some money 3. She didn't blame me at all. I wish to God she had now. Perhaps I'd feel better about it. 4. I didn't feel the way about her as she felt about me.
6. Mrs Birling's interrogation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. As if a girl of that sort would ever refuse money 2. Go and look for the father of the child. It's his responsibility 3. I did nothing I'm ashamed of. 4. She was claiming elaborate fine feelings and scruples that were simply absurd for a girl in her position. 5. "She needed not only money but advice, sympathy, friendliness...and you slammed the door in her face." – Inspector to Mrs Birling
7. Eric's interrogation	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I was in that state where a chap easily turns nasty and I threatened to make a row 2. I wasn't in love with her or anything – but I liked her – she was pretty and a good sport 3. You're not the kind of father a chap could go to when he's in trouble 4. I insisted on giving her enough money to keep her going. 5. 'Just used her for the end of a stupid drunken evening, as if she was an animal, a thing, not a person.' – Inspector to Eric
8. Inspector's final speech	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Each of you helped to kill her. Remember that. Never forget it. 2. There are millions and millions and millions of Eva Smiths and John Smiths still left with us. 3. We are members of one body 4. If men will not learn that lesson, they will be taught it in blood and fire and anguish
9. The Ending	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The whole story is just a lot of moonshine Nothing but an elaborate sell – Mr B 2. I remember what he said, how he looked and what he made me feel. Fire and blood and anguish. It frightens me the way you talk and I can't listen to any more of it. – Sheila 3. It's what happened to the girl and what we all did to her that matters. – Eric 4. Everything's alright now, Sheila. What about this ring? – Gerald

A CHRISTMAS CAROL QUOTES

Stave	Quotation
St 1	"Melancholy dinner... melancholy tavern"
St 1	"A tight-fisted hand.. A squeezing, wrenching, grasping, scraping, clutching, covetous old sinner!"
St 1	'No warmth could warm... No wind that blew was bitterer than he... Solitary as an oyster"
St 1	"If they would rather die, they had better do it, and decrease the surplus population"
St 1	"'I wear the chain I forged in life... made up of cash boxes, ledgers, heavy purses' replied the Ghost of Marley. 'I made it link by link, and yard by yard; I girded it on of my own free will, and of my own free will I wore it. Is its pattern strange to you?'"
St 1	"Every idiot who goes about with 'Merry Christmas' on his lips, should be boiled with his own pudding, and buried with a stake of holly through his heart."
St 2	'It was a strange figure-like a child: not so like a child as like an old man... from its head there sprung a bright clear jet of light"
St 2	"A solitary child... Scrooge sobbed"
St 2	"Scrooge had acted like a man out of his wits. His heart and soul were in the scene"
St 2	"Another idol has displaced me... A golden one"
St 2	"'No more! Show me no more!"
St 2	"Your nobler aspirations fall off one by one until the master-passion, Gain, engrosses you."
St 3	"There sat a jolly Giant, glorious to see, who bore a glowing torch"
St 3	"God bless us, every one!"
St 3	"Scrooge was the Ogre of the family"
St 3	"'A bleak, desert moor.. nothing grew. Where Miners live,' replied the Spirit. They were cheerful round a glowing fire, the old man singing a Christmas song and they joined in the chorus"
St 3	"A solitary lighthouse. Even here, the two men wished each other Merry Christmas... struck up a sturdy song"
St 3	"On a ship... dark, ghostly; but every man hummed a Christmas tune, or had a Christmas thought. And every man on board, good or bad, had a kinder word on that day than on any in the year"
St 3	"Rather a disagreeable animal, a savage animal, an animal that growled and grunted"
St 3	"Yellow, meagre, ragged, scowling, wolfish... devils lurked... They are Man's... The boy is Ignorance. This girl is Want... Beware, for I see that written which is Doom"
St 3	"Have they no refuge or resources?' cried Scrooge. 'Are there no prisons?' said the Spirit, turning on him for the last time with his own words. 'Are there no workhouses?'"
St 4	"The Phantom slowly, gravely, silently approached... Spirit scattered gloom and mystery... nothing but a spectral hand and one great heap of black"
St 4	"It's likely to be a very cheap funeral... I don't mind going if lunch is provided"
St 4	"Streets were foul, narrow, wretched, like so many cesspool, reeked with crime, filth, misery"
St 4	"He frightened every one away from him when he was alive, to profit us when he was dead!"
St 4	"Are these shadows of things that Will be, or shadows of things that May be?"
St 4	"I am not the man I was. Assure me that I may yet change these shadows you have shown me"
St 4	"I will honour Christmas in my heart... I will not shut out the lessons that they teach"
St 5	"I will live in the Past, the Present, and the Future! Scrooge repeated"
St 5	"I am light as a feather, I am as happy as an angel, I am as merry as a schoolboy"
St 5	"He had never dreamed that any walk – that anything – could give him so much happiness."
St 5	"'I have come to dinner. Will you let me in, Fred?' He was at home in five minutes. Nothing could be heartier. Wonderful party, wonderful games, wonderful happiness"
St 5	"I am about to raise your salary"
St 5	"Better than his word. To Tiny Tim, who did not die, he was a second father. He became as good a friend, as good a master, and as good a man, as the good old city knew. His own heart laughed"
St 5	"And so, as Tiny Tim observed, God bless Us, Every One!"
